GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Pleads Guilty.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—Jonathan Whittaker, on trial at Batavia, Clermont county, Ohio, for the murder of his father, Col J. H. Whittaker, in May last, pleaded guilty to-day of murder in the second degree and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Counterfeiter Shot.

Col. W. R. Cooke, a noted counterfeiter was killed this morning at his house near Sholesville, Kentucky. He had escaped from a number of U. S. deputy marshals who undertook to capture him last Friday, and the marshals surrounded the house this morning and demanded his surrender. It is said he opened the door with a pistol in his hand, when he was immediately shot through the heart. He was colonel of a Kentucky regiment in the Union army during the war.

A Libel Suit.

ROCHESTER, Dec. 16.—The answer of Bishop McQuaid, Catholic of Rochester, in the libel suit by Frederick Donner, editor of the Sunday Blizzard, was made yesterday. The suit was brought in August, claiming $10,000 damages because of the pastoral letter of the bishop read in the churches forbidding Catholics to read that paper on the ground that the editor defamed Fathers Sinclair and Paszlie of this city. The answer repeats that the editor's charges were false, and denies any improper motives in the pastoral letter.

Pirates in West India Waters.

The Laura Prince reports that when near the supposed uninhabited island off Maraguand, in the West Indies, a small vessel, schooner rigged, was seen at the only place of anchorage at the island. The Laura Bruce attempted to get out of her way, but she seemed desirous of being drawn on and followed in every direction. The stranger was only under jib and foresail, but as the Laura Prince showed a desire to get away, her mainsail was also hoisted, and it became evident the stranger meant to overhaul her if possible. After a chase of 50 miles the piratical looking craft drew away and no more was seen of her. She evidently was on a piratical expedition.

The Negro Exodus.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 16.—The negro exodus from Texas to Kansas continues. A considerable number of colored people pass through Dallas daily bound to that state. On the other hand quite a number have returned, all saying that they have been deceived about Kansas.

Senatorial Election.

RICHMOND, Dec. 16.—The general assembly to-day voted for U. S. senator to succeed Senator Withers. The vote was taken in the two houses in separate session. In the house the nominees were Withers, General Mahone and General Wyckham, the vote resulting: Mahone 56, Withers, 40; Wyckham, 2. In the senate the nominees were Withers and Mahone, resulting in a vote of for Mahone 23, Withers 15. The joint vote was as follows: Number of votes cast, 138; necessary to a choice 70, of which Mahone received 79, Withers 55. The two houses will meet in joint session to-morrow when a formal ballot will be taken and General Mahone declared elected to the U. S. senate.

A Fair One Libeled.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 16.—Eugene Tichof, secretary of Carlotta Patti, gave his deposition to-day in the libel case of Patti against the Post-Dispatch. His testimony was, in substance, the same as that of other parties examined yesterday. He emphatically denied that Patti was intoxicated at Leavenworth, or that she is at any time an intemperate woman. She drinks, at times, a little claret for dinner, but not so much as her physician, Prof. Lebe, has advised her to take. She does not use spirits of any kind, and detests strong beer and malt liquors. Patti was to be examined to-day, but it is alleged that last evening when a deputy sheriff went to serve a notice on her, she locked herself in her room and refused to be seen, and she and the rest of the troupe started on a special train for Topeka, Kansas, where she is billed to-night. The party is en route to California via San Francisco, and the probabilities are that this will be the last of the libel suit.

Made their Last Call.

[illegible], Ga., Dec. 16.—Father Doyle, a Catholic priest, and Morris Maynahan, a clerk in a store in Athens, Ga., were drowned to-night while crossing the river ten miles from that place, where they had been paying a visit. The river was swollen by the late rains.

The New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The stock market was irregular in the course throughout the day, but in the main weak and lower. In the early dealings prices declined ½ to 4½ per cent. Later in St. Louis and San Francisco preferred toward midday a recovery of ¼ to 3½ per cent. took place. St. Louis and San Francisco preferred, Chicago, C. B. & Q. and Kansas, Chattanooga & St. Louis leading the upward movement. In the afternoon the market was again weak and lower.

Resigned.

Hon. H. Kemble stated to-night he had resigned from the national republican committee, and Senator J. Donald Cameron will probably be selected to fill, the

WASHINGTON CITY.

Mineral Patents.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The general land office recently decided that all the affidavits required by law in support of applications for mineral patents must be made by the applicants themselves. Under this ruling a number of applications and affidavits filed in the land districts by agents of non residents of the state have been rejected. The acting commissioner of the general land office has however, at the instance of Senator Teller of Colorado, issued an order that no further cancellations of this sort shall be made until congress takes action upon the pending bill which provides that such applications and affidavits in cases of non-residents shall be valid if sworn to by their local agents cognizant of the facts.

Appropriation Bills.

It is probable that the military academy and consular, diplomatic appropriation bills will be passed by the house before the holiday recess.

A Compromise.

There are indications to-day that a compromise will be effected between the democratic factions in regard to the Bayard resolution embodying some such amendment as that submitted this afternoon by Butler, of South Carolina, which proposes that the repeal of the legal tender power of greenbacks shall take effect January 1, 1885, instead of going into effect immediately. The apprehended danger of unsettling business by depreciating the value of greenbacks would, it is argued, be avoided by thus giving time to prepare for the change.

Irrepressible Cameron.

Senator Don Cameron has secured a place on the national republican committee by the retirement of Kemble of Pennsylvania, and the chairmanship is now generally believed to be between Cameron of Pennsylvania, and Platt of New York. The importance of New York in the presidential election is urged in Platt's favor, and [illegible] now a powerful effort will be made to retain him as chairman of the committee to be elected by the national convention to preside over the management of the presidential campaign. It is reported that Parman, now representing Florida, and Patterson of South Carolina, on the committee, will be compelled to resign on the ground that they no longer reside in those states. Senator [illegible] of Nevada, who has just been appointed to a territorial judgeship, [illegible] a [illegible] will take his place. [illegible], now of New Mexico is understood to have given a proxy to ex-Senator Chaffee of Colorado.

Don Cameron and Gen. Grant.

Senator Don Cameron did not go to Philadelphia to meet Gen. Grant, and this fact has caused some comment to-day on the effect that it signifies he is not in the Grant boom. The true reason, however, of his remaining in Washington is his candidacy for the chairmanship of the national republican committee, which he is [illegible] with [illegible] if not completely [illegible] the prospects of success. The present outlook also indicates that Chicago will be [illegible] selected as the place of meeting for the national convention and [illegible] Wednesday in June as the time. Grant men are understood, however, to favor an earlier meeting, about the 20th of May. In connection with this topic, it is now [illegible] that notwithstanding [illegible] a few weeks ago about the [illegible] of southern members [illegible] a bill to make Gen. Grant captain general, that no such measure has yet been [illegible] either house. The National Republican to-day suggests that it has been found superfluous, because the people intend next year to make Grant commander in chief.

Don Cameron Looms Up.

The principal topic of conversation at the hotels and elsewhere to-night is the probable action of the national republican committee. The impression seems to prevail that Senator Cameron will be elected chairman, though Representative Frye undoubtedly has a considerable following. There was some opposition this afternoon among older members of the committee to the selection of Senator Cameron and General Averill, of Minnesota, developed some strength. Chicago is still favored as the place at which the convention will be held, and those who have been most strenuously opposed to the convention going there, now concede that the question is pretty conclusively settled in Chicago's favor.

To Test the Constitutionality.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Next Monday being the meeting day of the supreme court, Senator Edmunds will move that the case made up by General Butler and Congressman Chittenden to test the constitutionality of the legal tender act be advanced on the calendar with a view to argument and decision as soon as possible. Some persons are of the opinion that the court will refuse to advance it on the ground that it is not a genuine but only a manufactured case; but these apprehensions are not generally entertained. Chittenden is confident that it will be advanced. He does not believe congress will legislate on the subject, and remarks that most of the members are glad that the matter is pending in the supreme court, because it gives them an excuse to let it alone.

Okalahama Territory.

It is reported on good authority that the old bill to organize the territory of Okalahama, which was reintroduced by Senator Vest, the real purpose of which is to open up Indian territory to settlement, will be supported in this session by a combination of western and eastern interests, including the Jay Gould railroad corporation, so powerful as to make its enactment practically certain.

FINE DRAWN TECHNICALITIES.

The Governor and Council of Maine Succeed in Counting out Sufficient Republicans to "fix" Things—Let Southern Papers Howl "Returning Boards."

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BOSTON, Dec 15.—Dispatches from Augusta, Me., assert that a count has been made by the governor and council of the election returns which will result in delivering certificates to-morrow to a sufficient number of democrats to give that party a majority in both branches of the legislature. The dispatches assert that there is great feeling among the republicans owing to this condition of affairs.

The Advertiser's special from Augusta says the republican majority in both branches of the legislature has been counted out. The republican members have been counted down from 90 to 58, and democrats counted up from 51 to 78. It is claimed this has been done on technicalities and informalities of returns. The senate, under the count, will have a democratic majority of 8, there being under the count 20 democratic senators and 11 republican senators. The governor and council count out three senators from Cumberland, one each from York, Lincoln and Washington, and two from Androscoggin. The democrats will have a majority large enough in the house to give a quorum if none of the republicans should appear and take seats. They have thrown out republican representatives from Portland, Bath, Saco, Rockland and Lewiston and other towns enough to make vacancies in 14 representative districts.

PORTLAND, Me, Dec. 16.—A special to the Argus (democratic) says the council have not completed the canvass. A few districts remain unsettled. It is expected that the result will be reached by Wednesday. Democratic as well as republican returns have been thrown out. It is thought the house will be 77 fusion and 62 republicans, with 12 vacancies; senate, 19 fusion and 12 republicans.

Maine Questions at the Capitol.

The result of the count in Maine was the subject of general discussion about the capitol to-day. Senator Blaine is still absent, and some of his friends say he will not come to Washington until after the holidays.

Senator Hamlin does not believe the legislature of Maine will make any change in the manner of choosing presidential electors, because if they provide for a democratic electoral college in Maine, the republican legislature of New York would be very certain to take similar measures to make sure of all the electoral votes of the empire state, which would much more than turn the tables on the democrats. He regards the official count as fraudulent, and denounced it in the most vigorous language.

Congressman Frye, (Maine), says that in a political sense he is glad of it; that it will react to the advantage of republicans, and that next year the republicans will see to it that there will be not even technical grounds upon which they can be counted out.

Congressman Reed says the republicans are powerless to correct the abuse; that all they can do is to submit to it; that the fusionists have a legal quorum of their own, and that if the republicans attempted to set up a dual legislature they would not have a quorum.

Congressman Murch, a greenbacker, says that Gov. Garcelon acted in accordance with law, and that an investigation will be instituted by the legislature which will demonstrate that the republicans intimidated and bulldozed voters in the state.

It is conjectured that the chief purpose of this action of the governor and his council, aside from controlling the state patronage for the year, is to give the democrats a chance to elect a U. S. senator for Maine with the aid of state senators now counted in who will hold over.

THE LOTTERY ORDER.

Postmaster General Key before the Courts—The Validity of the Order to be Tested—Arguments, Etc.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

WASHINGTON, Dec 15.—The District supreme court, general term, took up to-day the case of the lottery agent against Postmaster General Key, in which the complainant seeks an injunction to restrain the enforcement of the recent order of the postoffice department, forbidding the delivery to him of mail matter, postal orders and registered letters. Counsel for respondent filed a demurrer setting forth that no affirmative allegation asking for relief had been made, as in equity there should have been; that no private letters have been withheld; that respondent is improperly sued as a citizen of Tennessee; that the postmaster general has the rightful custody of the mails, and that letters said to have been withheld are letters pertaining to lottery business. There was some discussion as to whether the argument should proceed on the demurrer or on the bill. Chief Justice Carter said he had no doubt the demurrer should be heard first in the natural order of argument. Judge Kay then proceeded with his argument upon the demurrer, maintaining that the president alone was responsible for official action of his executive officers, and that the [illegible] Senator Carpenter, on behalf of complainant, [illegible] represented the president only in the exercise of discretionary executive power. The present case is evidently one in which the president could not act. This court, Senator Carpenter said, is called upon to say whether congress had authorized the postmaster general to try persons for sending improper matter by mail, to cut them off from the benefit of postal service if the postmaster general considers him guilty, and then to [illegible] justice done him. The argument will be continued to-morrow.

FINISHED AT LAST.

Grant Completes the Circuit Around the World—Preparations at Philadelphia—Handsome Presents, Etc.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

HARRISBURG, Dec. 15.—A committee of the city council of Philadelphia waited on General Grant at the Executive Mansion and George S. Graham, on behalf of the city of Philadelphia, extended the welcome with a formal invitation to the general to visit Philadelphia to-morrow and thus complete the circuit of the world. To this General Grant replied as follows:

Gentlemen of Philadelphia: With a lively recollection of my departure from Philadelphia two years and seven months ago, I return again with equal pleasure. In my absence I have visited all the countries of Europe, every capital and most of those of Asia, together with a little of Africa. I have been nowhere that I would be willing to change for a residence in my own country or for any position that those countries could offer me. But I would not disparage any of them, because I have received the utmost kindness from them and the very best feeling has been manifested towards our great country. I will be ready to start with you to Philadelphia at 8 o'clock to-morrow or any hour that may be designated for our departure. I have no doubt that from my past experience we may meet with several committees to whom I will have to say a few words. I shall do no more at present than express my gratitude to the people of Philadelphia for the feelings manifested towards me and mine, from what I believe to be sincere and genuine friendship more than I deserve.

The committee then withdrew. At 8:40 P. M., Gen. Grant, escorted by the governor and staff and members of the Grand Army of the Republic, headed by the band of the Soldiers' Orphans Home of Philadelphia, walked from the executive mansion to the Grand Army fair. The general made a very brief speech at this place, merely expressing his gratification at meeting with his comrades of the Grand Army. An informal reception was then held for half an hour, after which the party proceeded to the Grand Army ball. During their progress through the streets a fine display of fireworks was made and much enthusiasm prevailed as the general and Gov. Hoyt walked in the ranks of the Grand Army. After spending a few moments in the ball room, the distinguished party returned to the executive mansion and from there they were escorted to the depot, where they took up their quarters in a sleeping car prepared to leave for Philadelphia at 6 o'clock in the morning.

A Handsome Present.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—Preparations for the reception of Gen. Grant are complete. Almost every house on the streets along which the procession will move are decorated and there is hardly a store on Chestnut, Market or Broad streets not covered with bunting and evergreens. On the route of the parade there are three arches. To-morrow there will be presented to Gen. Grant a table of solid gold, the exact facsimile of the old fashioned mahogany center table on which Gen. Grant and Gen. Lee signed the terms of the surrender of the confederate army at Appomattox Courthouse. For the marble top slab, however, a plate of glass is substituted, beneath which is carved from gold in the highest style of the jeweler's art, various patriotic and symbolical devices. Around the upper rim is engraved, "Presented to Gen. U. S. Grant, Dec. 16, A. D., 1879, by Frank T. Weldon, Ex-Confederate," while around the edge of the table is engraved, "Welcome home—The whole country feels itself honored by honors you have received from the great nations of the earth."

Nearing the End.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16.—The special train carrying ex-President and Mrs. Grant, Gov. Hoyt and staff, and committee and city council of Philadelphia, left Harrisburg at six this morning. At Lancaster, although barely daylight, a large crowd had assembled, and at Colesville, Downington and other places, crowds were gathered, but as the train ran through to Philadelphia without stopping Gen. Grant did not make his appearance. At the city limits Mrs. Grant and the other ladies of the party were transferred to a separate car and taken to the regular depot, whence they were driven to the hotel. The remainder of the train proceeded to the north Philadelphia station at Somerset and Broadway streets, arriving at 9:20 A. M. An immense crowd greeted the ex-president. Mayor Stokely and other officials entered the car and formally welcomed Gen. Grant to the city. To the mayor's speech of welcome Gen. Grant replied:

To you, Mr. Mayor and good citizens of Philadelphia, which has always been a home to me since I first became acquainted with the citizens of Philadelphia, I return with great pleasure.

The head of the line reached the state house at eight minutes of one. Stands, erected on the state house pavement for the accommodation of families of councilmen and court officers, were also crowded. The arch spanning Chestnut street was tastefully decorated, as well as the state house building. The military, comprising the first division, of twenty in line, occupied about three-quarters of an hour in passing. There were fully 30,000 persons in line. The day is delightful.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

News from the Front.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 6.—Gen. Roberts telegraphs from Cabul that one mountain gun was lost during Sunday's engagement. Gen. Roberts estimates the number of the enemy at 30,000. Their fire, he says, was severe. He is confident of his ability to restore British authority in Afghanistan, but says reinforcements are necessary to enable him to act vigorously.

Reinforcements Wanted.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Central News announces that the Indian government has asked for a reinforcement of 5000 men to be sent out forthwith.

The Other Claimant.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The attorney general has granted a fiat for a writ of error in the case of Arthur Orton, otherwise known as the "Tichborne claimant," on the ground that the matters put before him justify the discussion of the point whether Chief Justice Cockburn should not have made the two sentences of seven years penal servitude, one of which has just expired, concurring instead of successive.

Election—Parliament.

Thomas Lea (liberal), of Kidderminster, has been elected to the house of commons for County Donegal, polling 2313 votes, against 1630 for Maccorkel (conservative). The homerulers supported Lea.

Parliament will meet on February 5th.

Fatal Explosion.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—An explosion of blasting material in the Wilhemsgluck salt mine at Schwabischhall, Wurtemburg, killed 12 miners and injured a number of others two of whom are not expected to recover. The disaster was increased by the miners who, in a panic, endeavored to open the doors outwards, instead of inwards, thus preventing aid from reaching them before they had fallen unconscious from the effect of the flames.

MADRID, Dec. 15.—The ministerial journals state that Premier Canovas Del Castillo has not refused to give such explanations to the chamber of deputies as may be required, but will at the same time uphold the prerogative of the government.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

Retrenchment is the Word.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 15.—The Board of Supervisors made a good beginning this evening by adopting a resolution reducing the salaries of employes in the various city offices under the control of the board. The higher salaried officers are reduced from 10 to 25 per cent., others ten and five per cent., and some of the more poorly paid employes have received an increase; the result being to effect an aggregate reduction of from ten to twelve per cent. Mayor Kalloch sent a message calling attention of the board to the expiration of gas contract and suggesting a reduction of price.

Report Filed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16.—The appraisers of the estate of W. S. O'Brien have filed their report with the county clerk. Stewart, the referee, valuing the estate at $9,6[illegible].

It Still Goes On.

The examination on opposition of John H. Burke to the allowance of the account filed by the executors of the O'Brien estate came up to-day. Hall McAllister, counsel for the executors, stated that the account to be presented by Mr. Goyer of all assets and liabilities of the firm of Flood & O'Brien at the time of the latter's death, and all the transactions of the firm since was not ready to be filed, and desired the opponent to go on meanwhile with the testimony. John Trehane, counsel for Burke, refused to proceed till the firm's account is filed, as he could not tell what might be the scope of the examination, as some discrepancy had appeared between the rendition of the executors' account and the testimony of witnesses, rendering a full account of the firm's transactions necessary before proceeding further. The account being promised by to-morrow the opponent requested a citation to issue to James C. Flood, an executor, to appear at that time.

The Effect on Stocks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16.—The break in values which followed the announcement that the pumping machinery of the Savage mine was to be shut down had caused so much uneasiness that prominent stockholders and brokers have counseled the management to reconsider their resolution and endeavor to make some arrangement by which a portion of the expense of pumping may be borne by the Hale & Norcross. The managers of the two companies held a meeting this afternoon, the result of which has not yet transpired, but it is expected that some arrangement will be reached.

The New Management.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16.—At the meeting of the newly elected G. & C. trustees to-day the following officers were elected: President, W. S. Hobart; vice president, A. B. Hull; secretary, A. K. Dubrow; superintendent, H. H. Pennoyer.

Another Suicide.

Frederick Diefendorf, a cigar dealer on Second, committed suicide near the Masonic cemetery this evening by shooting himself. Cause, disappointment in business.

COMMITTEE WORK.

Bills Considered by Various Committees of Congress—Tariff on Sugar—Relief Bill.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The house committee on ways and means to-day designated January 27th, 29th, and 31st for a hearing upon the question of the revision of the tariff upon sugars.

The Appropriations.

The house committee on appropriations, after a session of several hours, agreed upon the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill as proposed by the sub-committee with the exception of the item of $7500 for the Mexican claims' commission, which was stricken out.

The bill introduced in the senate to-day by Davis of West Virginia, to relieve the treasurer of the United States from the amount now charged to him and deposited with the several states, refers to the amount $28,101,644 that now appears on all the quarterly statements of the treasurer as part of the "unavoidable balance" for which he is nominally responsible, although the money is not within his control. The act of June, 1836, passed at the instance of Henry Clay, provided that all money in the treasury on the 1st January, 1837, except $5,000,000, should be deposited with the several states in proportion to their respective representation in congress upon the condition of its repayment to the government whenever needed and called for by the secretary of the treasury. In compliance with this law three installments of the treasury surplus were deposited with 26 states, then constituting the union. The largest amount being deposited as follows: With New York, $4,018,521; Pennsylvania, $2,867,515; Virginia, $2,198,428; Ohio, $2,007,260; North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee, $1,433,757; Massachusetts, $1,338,173; South Carolina and Georgia, $1,051,422 each; Maryland and Maine, $955,838 each; Indiana, $860,254; and to other states, viz, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Delaware, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois, Michigan and Arkansas, amounts ranging from $286,751 to $764,760 each.

The house committee on naval affairs instructed the chairman to report favorably on Representative Conger's bill to authorize and equip an expedition to the Arctic regions.

The house committee on judiciary held a busy session this morning with a full attendance of members. The resolution of Governor Young of Ohio, relative to the pay of court officers gave rise to an animated discussion, and a substitute, not materially differing, was adopted and ordered to be reported to the house. It reads as follows:

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That a joint committee of three senators and five representatives be appointed to investigate the present system of salaries, fees and emoluments allowed to officers of the several courts; to ascertain whether any, and if any, what abuses now exist, or have existed, or may take place thereunder, and to report by bill or otherwise.

CANADA.

Father Dowd's Views.

MONTREAL, Dec. 15.—Father Dowd of St. Patrick's church, the leading Irish Catholic clergyman of this city, is discountenancing the raising of subscription for the people of Ireland. He says no recognized appeal has been made for assistance.

Drowned while Skating.

PENETANGUISHENE, Ont., Dec. 15.—To-day while a number of persons were skating Joseph Geubro and a young lady named Cloutier fell through a hole in the ice and were drowned.

A Turbulent Election.

(From the New York Herald.)

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 3.—The municipal election that occurred here to-day was the most exciting contest that has occurred in many years. There were no nominations. R. H. May and Charles Estes, the opposing candidates for mayor, were both democrats. The vote was the largest ever registered, and as the negroes were nearly equal in strength to the whites, there was a fierce struggle in every ward to obtain their votes. Early this morning several breakfasts were provided for them at various places, and when they had finished eating they were decorated with badges and marched in procession to the polls, preceded by bands of music. In the Fourth ward, where the largest vote was polled and where the most turbulent spirits [illegible] A May negro named Walker was shot in the neck and it is believed the wound will prove fatal. [illegible] May was elected by over 400 majority. Bonfires are blazing on the streets to-night. A Chinaman voted for Estes to-day, and one of the [illegible] "No Chinese labor wanted." CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.

Booth introduced a bill appropriating $[illegible] for the erection in Smithsonian Institute of a statue of Prof. Joseph Henry; referred.

Plumb reported with an amendment, the bill introduced by Paddock in March last, to authorize the secretary of the interior to ascertain and certify the amount of grounds located with military warrants in the states described therein, and other purposes. It provides for the payment of what is known as "five per cent fund" of various western states.

On motion of McPherson, the bill introduced by him last session relating to the transportation of animals, was made the special order for the 7th of January.

House.

The military academy appropriation bill was reported and referred to committee of the whole.

Scales attempted to report back the senate bill for the relinquishment of the Ute reservation in Colorado; objected to by Mills.

Converse, chairman of committee on public lands, reported the bill for the establishment of a land office in Montana territory; passed. Also, a bill for the establishment of a land office in Dakota territory, passed. Also, bill relating to public lands of the United States; referred.

Bennett of Dakota, from same committee, reported a bill abolishing the military reservations of Forts Abercrombie, Seward and Ransom, Dakota; passed.

Money, chairman of committee on postoffices and post roads, reported the bill for regulating the manner of the expenditures of schedule routes; made the special order for the third Tuesday in January.

Gibson asked that his bill relative to an inter-oceanic canal, now in the hands of the commerce committee, should be referred to a select committee on inter-oceanic canal. This was agreed to, and the speaker stated that he would examine the resolution adopted this morning to see whether it did not by its terms authorize the transfer of all bills relative to the inter-oceanic canal from the committees which now have charge of them to a new select committee.

Morse presented petitions asking for the passage of the joint resolution now before the senate committee, providing for the abolition and repeal of the legal tender power now given to United States treasury notes; referred. Adjourned.

HOW IT WAS STOLEN.

A GOVERNMENT PRINTER GETS $1500 FOR STEALING THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE—FAST TIME TO SAVE A BEAT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The true story of how the president's message and secretary's report was surreptitiously obtained for publication has come to the ears of your correspondent this evening. The matter was engineered by Theron D. Crawford, the correspondent of the Chicago Times, and formerly of the Pittsburg press. He approached a government printer, and finally secured a bargain to obtain proofs of the document for $1500. He made an arrangement with several papers to receive the message and divide the expense. Some of them were disposed to weaken on Saturday, but Mr. Crawford was instructed by the Times to go ahead, if that paper had to assume all the expense itself. The message was telegraphed so as to close about 4 o'clock in the morning, when the Chicago Tribune got wind of it, and immediately telegraphed to New York, where a copy of the New York Times, with the message in it, was obtained. The work of telegraphing it from New York to the Tribune commenced at 4 o'clock in the morning. Ten wires were used, and the Tribune was enabled to appear with the message in a late edition about 7:30 o'clock this morning. This is, perhaps, the most remarkable feat of telegraphing and setting up matter on record, as the entire work of making arrangements, telegraphing and setting up over 20,000 words was accomplished in less than four hours.

WEDNESDAY MORNING DEC

TAXING EVIDENCES OF DEBT

No other financial matter has ever puzzled the heads of the average tax law maker than that of the framing of a statute [illegible] the subjects [illegible] the assessment and taxation of mortgages which would be uniform and operate justly and fairly upon all the state [illegible] the same time receiving the share of tax from the property which ought to pay. A decision was given in the supreme court of the United States last month in which it is said some points are settled that had not before been expressly tested in that tribunal. The facts in the case were substantially as follows: Mr Kirtland a citizen and resident of Litchfield county in the state of Connecticut loaned $20,000 to a citizen and resident of Chicago state of Illinois taking as evidence of and security for the debt a note of the debtor and a mortgage on the land real estate. The debtor owned the land and the money borrowed was expended in constructing buildings thereon and both land and buildings were included in the mortgage. The whole premises were taxed in the state of Illinois for state city county town and other purposes. The assessor of Litchfield county in Connecticut ascertaining that Kirtland held the notes for this debt due him in Illinois returned the amount thereof as personal property subject under the laws of that state to taxation. The case passed through all the courts of Connecticut and the decision upheld the right to tax. The supreme court of the United States has now affirmed the decision of the state courts and Kirtland is required to pay the tax.

The decision must be accepted as law though it throws all the difficulties and embarrassments upon the borrower or debtor class. At the same time it closes all discussion as to the legality of the taxation of credit and the legality of double taxation. Inasmuch as a very large sum in the aggregate is loaned in the New England and other states along the Atlantic seaboard, upon real property situate in the west the latter section will be the more general sufferer by the results of this decision for as the Chicago Tribune in commenting upon the construction given the law by the supreme court says it is an admitted fact that men lending money seek the highest rate of income in the shape of interest for the rent or use thereof. The loans are made upon terms and conditions that will secure to the creditor the highest rate of interest over and above all other possible or at least probable charges. When mortgages promissory notes or other evidences of debt are liable to taxation the lender protects himself against such taxation by including its possible amount in the rate of interest. In nine cases out of ten the borrower pays in the shape of additional interest the taxes possible on the mortgage on his farm and on the farm itself if the mortgagee and mortgagor be residents of different states. An effect of the decision will be to compel some men in Oregon, if the legislature pleases to make it so, who, disliking the higher taxes imposed on their money in this state have loaned it elsewhere, to pay taxes on the notes here. The result is double taxation, but it cannot be avoided and the lender will most certainly demand an increased rate of interest to compensate for this possible taxation. The decision declares according to a reported version of it, that it is discretionary with the several states to provide a tax on this form of personal property, but it is an authority which the average legislature rarely has the intelligent firmness to resist. The desire to punish the man who lends money to those who stand in need of it is generally irresistible in a state legislature. Moreover the people of New England will not neglect hereafter to add as largely as possible to the revenues of their states and counties by imposing a liberal tax upon the mortgaged farms and other real estate of the west, and forcing the debtors of the northwest to contribute towards defraying the expenses of the state and local governments of the Atlantic states. The borrowers and debtors will hereafter feel the oppressiveness and severity of the laws to compel the payment of the tax on mortgages and credits—a form of tax which under the advice of cheap demagogues this debtor class has always demanded.

THE COUNT IN MAINE

Of late years, and it is the growing opinion, that small technicalities in politics trade, religion or any other business are not to be tolerated in the minds of an enlightened people. So universal has this idea become that honest men of all parties have condemned it and that it has resulted in such decided rebuke at the polls that it has always doomed the party to certain defeat in the states where it has been practiced. It is needless to argue against an accepted doctrine that the practice has been successfully put in operation in other localities. Every man when he puts his vote into the ballot box desires that the vote should be counted according to the intent and spirit of the voter. If a voter casts a ballot for a well known candidate John Smith, and is unguarded enough to cast a ballot for J. Smith, justice, good sense, honesty and all the true instincts of fair dealing demand that his vote be counted according to the intent and purpose of the elector. If in an election one of the inspectors has failed to sign the return through inadvertence or neglect, the same principles of fair dealing demand that the ballot fairly cast without a scintilla of question shall be counted in the same manner as though no informality had taken place.

Universally as such thieving practices have been condemned and in the face of all precedent the Maine democracy the governor and council have, on a technicality cast out about 40 republican members of the legislature and to make assurance doubly sure have done their work so thoroughly that in case of the republicans refusing to take their seats they will have a quorum in each branch of the legislature. To make this infamy bear the stamp of fairness they have also thrown out a few democratic members of either branch. In a word they have nullified the recent election and given to the people of Maine a fusion which is only another name for democratic legislature. The dispatches say the republican members have been counted down from 90 to 58 and democrats counted up from 51 to 78. It is claimed this has been done on technicalities and informalities of returns. The senate will have a democratic majority of 9 there being under the count 20 democratic senators and 11 republican senators. The governor and council count out three senators from Cumberland and one each from York Lincoln and Washington and two from Aroostook [illegible] The dispatches further assert that there [illegible] among republicans [illegible] of affairs [illegible] republican representatives express themselves as not surprised and denounced the counting as fraudulent [illegible] contending that [illegible] to the advantage of the republicans [illegible] they would make it so certain [illegible] the merest technicalities would be left unguarded. Congressman Murch (greenbacker) as might be expected tried to excuse the fraud by charges of corruption and bulldozing.

The fraud cannot be too severely condemned and will doubtless react on the democracy whose recent actions in demanding a free ballot are still fresh in the minds of the people [illegible] a republican state from [illegible] people and from [illegible] the free ballot has not been wiped [illegible] of that commonwealth will plainly speak and march into line by 30,000 republican majority.

About 11,000 New York either threw away their votes on scattering candidates or staid at home on election day last month waiting for the increase of legal voters [illegible] It is safe to say that of the 3,000 who voted for the greenbackers and scattering [illegible] are republicans [illegible] say that of the 11,000 who staid at home 8,000 are republican. So that 30,000 [illegible] the state [illegible] the ticket at the last election. Add [illegible] to the republican vote cast at the late election and it would show a total of [illegible] 9,000 more than Tilden received in [illegible] No candidate [illegible] which the democracy can nominate will be able to poll as large a vote in New York as Tilden did in the centennial year by at least 25,000. So that there is every reason to believe that with a republican candidate on whom the party [illegible] the state will [illegible] New York can be carried by 30,000 majority.

A worthless concern is much exercised over what it alleges is an attempt of Collector Kelly to sell it to somebody. Everybody considers that it would willingly be sold, the only trouble being that no purchaser can be found. We suspect that is what hurts it. Kelly could buy it very easily if he desired to do so, but he could not sell it to anybody just because it takes two to make a trade and a buyer can't be found.

There seems to be a move on foot to induce some of the colored people of the south to settle in Oregon. While there is no probability that very many of them will come so far yet those who come will find plenty of room and opportunity to make a good living without any bull dozer to molest or make them afraid.

Clarkson N. Potter was beaten in New York by just 287 votes. Had the result been a trifle different Mr Potter would still have been talked of as a presidential candidate but as it is exit Potter.

The Philadelphia Times thinks the real strong man is the one who can stand up against the third term boom.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Daily Oregonian.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 17, 1879.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—12:30 A. M.—For Pacific coast generally clear weather, except North Pacific, generally cloudy and light rains.

CITY.

WELL MACADAMIZED.—The condition of Front street north and south of Ash street presents a very great contrast. South of Ash, the old and decayed nicholson pavement renders the street half impassable in many places. It is, in fact, a regular "corduroy road," and its improvement is an urgent necessity in the very near future. Between Ash and F streets, Front has been recently macadamized in a most substantial manner, and is one of the best thoroughfares for travel in the city. The contractors were Messrs. O'Neil & Hill, and how well the work has been performed may be seen from the present condition of Front street. If all the macadamizing on the streets were done as well, there certainly would be no occasion for complaint on the part of property owners.

ARRESTED FOR DESERTION.—Two sailors named respectively Wm. Hore and Daniel Murray, had the ship Lucille libeled yesterday, claiming that wages were due them. The captain of that vessel had both apprehended on a charge of desertion. A preliminary hearing was had before the United States commissioner yesterday forenoon, who held the defendants to answer the charge. The case came before the U. S. district court yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Judge Deady found the defendants guilty and sentenced each to the county jail for the period of one month and to forfeit wages.

RICH PLACER DIGGINGS.—Mr. J. G. Henrici requests us to say that he has no interest in the quartz ledge mentioned in yesterday's paper as having been discovered by Messrs. Kendall and Henrici. Mr. Henrici, with Mr. F. D. Saunders, of The Dalles, have been prospecting the north fork of John Day river, where they discovered placer diggings which paid in the best places as high as 40 cents to the pan. They staked their claims and will go back in the spring to commence work in order to develop them. Mr. Henrici has specimens of the gold with him which are quite coarse and easily saved.

CEMETERY PLANS.—The plans of the new cemetery were on exhibition yesterday at the library and were viewed by many of our citizens, all of whom expressed admiration of the manner in which the grounds are laid off and to be improved. The maps will remain in the same place to-day and the ladies of Portland are invited to visit the library rooms which are comfortably warmed and pleasant. [illegible] will avail themselves of the opportunity to explain these plans of a place which is to become the final resting place of the dead of Portland.

COMPLIMENTARY TO NORWOOD.—The Salem Statesman says: "Norwood L. Curry has been appointed postmaster at Mehama, Marion county, in place of Mrs. Mehama Smith, resigned. Mrs. Smith gave great satisfaction during the time she held the office, but its duties were too great a tax on her attention. In consequence she gave up the position, and Mr. Curry has been appointed. He is a young man of good business capacity, engaged in merchandising at that place, and will no doubt make an acceptable postmaster."

CHRISTMAS OFFERING.—The Oregon Churchman says: "Bishop Morris desires us to call the attention of the clergy to the appointed offering on Christmas day for the fund for disabled clergymen. It is desirable that every congregation should make this offering toward a fund of much importance in the administration of our diocesan affairs. It is now contributing to the comfort and support of one of our disabled brethren, and no one can say how soon additional demands may be made upon it."

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT.—Yesterday morning an old man named James Barker was arrested on a warrant issued from Justice Bybee's court, charged with an assault with a dangerous weapon upon Mr. Tomlinson and his son a day or two since, on the farm of the latter four miles from this city, near the Washington county line. An assault and battery was clearly proved, but the accusation filed was not sustained and the defendant was discharged.

LADIES' SOCIAL.—There will be a social this (Wednesday) evening at the basement of the Taylor-street church by the ladies of the same. At the close of the fair given at Good Templar hall, a few weeks ago, a number of fancy articles were left which were not sold. The purpose of the social is to dispose of these remaining articles. Admission free. All invited.

NEW YEAR'S EVE BALL.—Under the auspices of the Portland Turn Verein a grand New Year's Eve ball will be given at Turn Halle Wednesday evening, December 31st. A splendid supper will be served in the dining room. The following gentlemen constitute the committee of arrangements: H. [illegible], G. Castendeick and P. Wagner.

POLICE COURT NOTES.—James Moore, assault with a dangerous weapon, continued; Geo. [illegible], abusive language, $5; Wm. Baker, [illegible], Jackson Stilley, John Nelson, drunk and disorderly, each $5; Jake Williams, disorderly conduct, $5; Ah Gong, disorderly [illegible], $5; Jack Hewett, indecent exposure, $20.

MASONIC ELECTION.—The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at a stated meeting of Willamette Lodge No. 2, A. F. & A. M.: [illegible] A. Webb, W. M.; George H. [illegible], S. W.; E. D. White, J. W.; Charles [illegible], treasurer; Gustaf Wilson, secretary; [illegible], trustee Masonic cemetery.

THE CHARITY BALL.—The social party to be given at Turn Halle to-night in aid of the "Orphanage" gives promise of being an entertainment of unusual interest. A large number of tickets have been disposed of, and the attendance will doubtless be large [illegible].

GIVE US YOUR HAND.—Says the Astorian: "The Astoria boot and shoe factory's success is assured. They are now working on large orders from Portland. This is as it should be. Portland cannot live without Astoria and vice versa. Give us hold of your hand, brother."

GO-AS-YOU-PLEASE.—The work of preparing the Mechanics' pavilion for the six days walking match will be commenced in a few days. Sixteen laps will constitute a mile. It is understood that there are 12 entries already.

LECTURE.—Dr. I. Folkman, editor of the Staats Zeitung, delivered a free lecture last evening at the courthouse in Astoria in the German language. His subject was upon the general advancement of the Pacific northwest.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—In this court Judge Deady will announce a decision this morning on the application for the appointment of a receiver in the case of U. S. vs. W. C. Arnold.

APPOINTMENTS.—The following are the Episcopal appointments: December 12th, Eugene City; 14th, Roseburg; 16th, Junction City; 21st, Vancouver; January 11th, Oregon City.

PASSED TO SEA.—A dispatch from Astoria last evening at 6 o'clock states that the steamer Tratee passed to sea during the afternoon.

APPOINTED.—Judge S. W. Rice appointed in probate yesterday E. D. Shattuck administrator of the estate of John Donner, deceased.

The waist places of human life are now occupied by surcingles.

"And the greatest of these is charity." Therefore do not forget the charity ball to-night.

The old steamer Gussie Telfair is now lying at the Harrison street wharf, San Francisco, receiving new boilers.

The local reference yesterday to the death of Mr. Loewenberg should have been Mrs. Loewenberg, mother of Mr. J. Loewenberg.

The scavengers of San Francisco have organized a protective union. The question is, how are the people going to protect their olfactories.

Some people insist that woman wants the ballot. What would she do with it? It isn't long enough for a belt, and there isn't enough of it for a bustle.

One of the ex-khedive's numerous wives has eloped from Naples with a Frenchman, which would indicate that she was a harem-scarem kind of girl.

The average young lady is puzzling her brain over the conundrum: "What is my Charles Augustus going to give me for a Christmas present?"

An exchange says: "Don't pay any attention to a sign of 'Shut This Door!' It is a trick of a lazy man, resorted to to get others to do his work for him."

The wedding expenses of King Alfonso were $2,000,000, and the young man is beginning to think that when the poet said life was real he knew what he was talking about.

George Eliot's physicians told her she must never again attempt literary work, and the Boston Post wants that doctor to come right to this country and take charge of Joaquin Miller.

They met, 'twas on the street—
"Oh, such a bonnet!" thought the one—
The other thought, "What feet!"
Yet they did talk—
Together walk—
And kissed each other's cheeks—and chalk.

The king of the Sandwich Islands has a little daughter named Victoria-Kawekiu-Kaiulani-Lunalilo-Kalaniuiahilapalapa, and yet she is only four years old. When she grows up one sign painter will be kept busy marking her chemiloons and things.

A pessimistic exchange exclaims:

—Broad is the road that leads to debt,
And thousands walk together there;
Prompt payments find another rut,
With here and there a passenger.

In looking through the stock of Robbins & Yates we were agreeably surprised to find such a fine, new and attractive assortment of frames, engravings, oil paintings, Christmas cards, brackets, etc. They have Whitney & Holmes' organs, Decker Bros. and Hazilton Bros.' pianos. You certainly can find many useful and ornamental articles for presents at this house.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—The comedy of "All that Glitters is not Gold" was presented at New Market Theater last night to a small audience. The roles of "Martha Gibbs," by Miss Andrews, and of "Toby Twinkle," by Manager Maguire, were well sustained. To-night the same bill will be repeated. Manager Maguire contemplates playing one night, the present week, at Vancouver. The date has not yet been fixed.

"RAINBOW REVELS."—John Maguire and Fred Lyster, we understand, are both conjointly writing an entirely new entertainment, to be entitled "Rainbow Revels." From the thorough knowledge of stage business each possesses and literary ability of both, something good may be expected. Mr. Lyster is a playwright and translator of numerous French plays. John Maguire has been the contributor of a series of interesting articles to the Virginia Enterprise, some of which have been extensively copied; and has also written a five act play for Mr. Joseph Murphy, which has been played at Salt Lake City and Park Theater, Brooklyn, lately with great success.

COLORED IMMIGRATION SOCIETY.

The colored people of Portland, about three months ago organized an immigration society, the objects of which are set forth in the following circular printed and extensively circulated through the mails in the south western and southern states:

The colored citizens of this city, mindful of the widespread discontent among the colored people of many of the southern states of this union, arising from varied and oppressive causes, which forces them to seek other and more hospitable homes among strangers, have organized themselves into a society to be known as the "Portland Colored Immigration Aid Society," for the purpose of "compiling and diffusing useful information on the products, resources and climate of the state of Oregon, for the benefit of such persons in other states as may desire to come and settle among us," and "to the extent of its ability, this society will give such encouragement, available and material aid as may become necessary in worthy individual and collective cases, by securing cheap fares on railroads, steamboats and other modes of transportation, make temporary arrangements for the accommodation of such immigrants as may arrive in our city from time to time, secure situations in town or country; advise with and instruct them in the selection of lands for settlement and homes, and such other services as may be needed by immigrants, and the society is enabled to give."

Should you find anything in the objects and purposes set forth above that will serve any one in your section of country, a letter from them to the undersigned, setting forth the special points of information desired, will receive immediate attention.

The society will give an entertainment on Tuesday evening of next week at Good Templar Hall, the proceeds to be devoted to furthering its objects. The entertainment will be of a musical and literary character and also a supper. Several amateur musicians will appear and a number of prominent speakers will deliver addresses.

The lecture was a fine scholarly effort, abounding in many gems of thought and historical incidents, and was delivered in an effective style. Dr. Mellis' lecture was listened to with marked attention by all who were fortunate enough to be present, and was a source of real gratification to the auditors.

It was further resolved by the board that the foregoing proceedings be published in THE DAILY OREGONIAN, and that a copy of the same be presented to Rev. Dr. Mellis under the official seal of the congregation.

WM. SCHEFFLER'S ST. HELENA
SANITARY, VACUUM DISTILLED GRAPE BRANDY AND GOOD OLD EDGE HILL WINES.

Mr. Scheffler is sole proprietor of the principle known as the vacuum process of distilling, by which the fusil oils are left with the residue and not incorporated with the brandy, leaving it pure and free from all deleterious substances which does and must exist in all alcoholic liquors distilled by the usual process of boiling heat. California Physicians have pronounced their preference of it to all other. Doctor Cox, government revenue officer at Cincinnati, Ohio, says in his report, that after ten years' of close investigation he can safely say that very few, if any pure wines or brandy are exported from the Old Continent to this. He has found none in his many analyses—that all are doctored before leaving France. The French Consul at Buenos Ayres writes home to his government that so much complaint is made there of the appearance of litharge and other dangerous drugs in all their French wines, that there is great danger of losing the trade of the Argentine States. Other proofs could be cited, were it necessary, to prove the superiority of the best class of California wines and brandy. Orders from responsible parties, addressed to Wm. Scheffler, or Geo. H. Beach, St. Helena, Napa county, Cal., will receive prompt attention.

"LOYALTY."

Gen. O. O. Howard delivered an address at Vancouver barracks on the 5th inst., on the subject of "Loyalty." The following extracts are made from the address, which throughout was very excellent:

How suggestive, how pregnant with history, how full of sincere loyalty are the words of Lincoln, who was permitted himself, after a life of loyalty to home, to society, to country, and to God, to accomplish the same extreme measure of sacrifice of which he so eloquently spoke. I love to repeat those simple phrases, and let them sink deep into my heart. They turn away our thoughts from the sad man himself, a modest embodiment of a nation's throes, to the principles at stake, and lift us up into the purer atmosphere of genuine American patriotism. He stood there, at Gettysburg, viewing the field where thousands had trod to the music of the rattling and the roar of the battle and the valley. He easily pictured the struggle of life and death. He remembered the cause, and was able to condense the steady, the sacrifice, the duties of the present, and the care of the future, into the few following words:

"Four score and seven years ago, our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a grand battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

"But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate,—we cannot consecrate,—we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they, who fought here, have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that, from these honored dead, we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion, that we here highly resolve, that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that the government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Arnold says of the effect of this short address: "He seemed so absorbed in the heroic sacrifices of the soldiers as to utterly forget himself. * * * The magnetism of those who heard him extended to the vast crowds beyond the reach of his voice, and tears, and sobs, and cheers spoke the emotions which deeply moved the assemblage with grand, patriotic, heroic thoughts,—the sublime in action and sentiment." How high the type; how clear and unmistakable is this expression of genuine loyalty to the nation's life. I have constructed my subject much as, one day, I observed a carpenter constructing a ladder. I have put in the first and fifth rounds, and knocked the ladder together for trial of shape.

The remaining rounds are, Loyalty to Self; Loyalty to Society; Loyalty to God. Fortunately, for our patience, the rounds are much alike and, like the stairs of the granite treasury at Washington, they possess a solid connection and support.

One day, while my wife and I were looking for some holiday presents, we were shown by a Chinaman a beautiful little box. He opened it, and there was another beautiful box, just fitting into the first. The second contained a third, the third enclosed a fourth, and so on to a tiny box not bigger than a child's thimble. This is suggestive to me as a simile for the heart or spirit, which every man, woman and child may have and exercise without stint toward the God of love and law, who has shapen us, warmed us into life, and given us power. The outer box is this God love, or loyalty to God; it contains, taught to it, and expanding with it, love of mankind, then in order, love of country, love of society, love of home and well regulated love of one's self.

Who is disloyal to himself? One who abuses or neglects himself. The imbecile, the self made idiot, the drivling drunkard, the clutching miser, the loathsome, leprous debauchee. Who, on the contrary, is loyal to himself? He that keepeth his heart with all diligence. He that eateth the daily bread of knowledge, and drinketh in wisdom from pure and living fountains. He that treateth his body and his soul with loving reverence, and takes proper means to preserve them in possible healthful condition.

Who is disloyal to his home? The same who is disloyal to himself. Untrue to wife, untrue to aged parents, untrue to the children, shown in the thousand hydra headed forms of extravagance, neglect and crime.

Who is disloyal to society? He that is an enemy to himself and to his home. He that hateth his neighbor. He that resembles that famous dog in the manger, who would neither eat his food in peace, nor allow other animals to do so.

Who is disloyal to our government? He that is disloyal to himself, to his home and to society. He that would pollute and not purify. He that would disintegrate and not crystalize. He that would deify intelligence, and substitute vice for virtue. He that would tear in pieces, break in fragments, and burn to ashes our noble edifice,—the grand resultant of the fathers', and the children's children's treasure,—thought, anxiety, suffering and blood shedding.

Who now, pray, is disloyal to God? He that is disloyal to himself, to his home, to human society, or to proper government. He that is disloyal to the supreme law, so often named as the "Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man," so richly expressed in Christ's all comprehensive words: "Love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, mind, and strength, and thy neighbor as thyself." He that is disloyal to this infinite law of love God-ward and man ward, is permeated with the elements of disloyalty from the crown of his head to the sole of his feet.

What then, is the encouraging thought in all this to such little people as we are, subject to err, and ever on the brink of danger, seen and unseen? Why, it is this: Loyalty has to do with the purposes of a man,—our purposes are under our own control.

I remember in my boyhood, Elder Starr, an aged clergyman, who was a large man, who had a broad, happy face, and a fine head, covered with thin, snowy locks. I liked him much because he always remembered my name, and spoke to me when we met with an encouraging smile. But as I could not sleep comfortably in church, like Deacon Cushman, who sat just in front of me, Elder Starr did tire me with his very long sermons. You can, then, imagine my great relief and joy when he repeated his "In conclusion" the third time, with the truly prophetic addition of: "and by way of improvement." Then, too, I noticed that Deacon Cushman shook his round, bald head, and said "ahem!" and looked first toward his wife, and then steadily toward the high pulpit—all as if in denial of his having been napping for one moment during the interesting sermon. I think he also was glad as I, that Elder Starr had come to that well-known milestone: "In conclusion, and by way of improvement."

So, now, imitating the genial minister, what may we add by way of improvement in joyous conclusion? It is this: We will here "highly resolve" to make happy hearts, happy homes, happy citizens and happy christians; to do what we can to perfect our laws, and secure the thorough execution of them; what we can to increase the protecting power of the nation, at home and abroad, till the humblest man shall feel that the right to life, to liberty, to property, and to joy is abundantly secured to him,—and to do all we can to implant and extend not only intelligence but virtue. If the true citizens of our land are but moderately successful, then higher and higher will be the reaches of our civilization; and wider and wider its influence upon the other nations of the globe; and deeper and deeper the loyalty of the hearts of our people; which shall embrace men and angels within the compass of its devotion.

Garrison, of No. 149 Front street, commenced in a quiet way to handle the New Wilson Sewing Machine, and from a small beginning has increased his business to such an extent that the Company have promoted him to the position of general agent for Oregon, Washington and Idaho. This is a deserved promotion and shows that the Company appreciate the services of faithful men. Mr. Garrison has proven himself well adapted to the sewing machine business and has made himself an efficient machine man. He has the exclusive agency for this northwest coast, and sub-agents will hereafter draw their supplies from him. He does business directly with the home office at Chicago.

The Company have discontinued their branch office at San Francisco and established in its stead two general agencies for the coast, one of which Mr. Garrison has charge of. The home office of the New Wilson is at Chicago, with branches at New York and New Orleans. The Company is in an exceedingly prosperous condition, and have been compelled to make extensive improvements in order to meet its demands for machines. We have been shown a letter from the Company to Mr. Garrison which states that they are doubling the capacity of their works, and by next spring will be able to turn out over 700 machines per day. Mr. Garrison has 150 machines in store and on the way to Portland, and has sent a still further order which the Company say they will be unable to fill until after the completion of their new works. The Company is now fully three months behind on their orders. In the territory which Mr. Garrison now has, some 1500 machines were sold last year, and he estimates that 2000 machines will be needed to supply the trade the coming season, as the demand for them is steadily increasing. The durability and excellence of the New Wilson Sewing Machine is established beyond a question. In order to meet the requirements of the community the Company manufacture two entirely different machines—the small arm which has been introduced and known as the New Wilson, and the other (the large armed one) being known as the oscilating shuttle machine.

W. G. Wilson, the President and founder of the Wilson Company, is one of the self-made men of the United States. He commenced his career a poor boy in Cleveland, Ohio, some twenty years ago. The aim and object of his life has been to place before the poor of the land a cheap and durable sewing machine, and it is mainly to the success of his enterprise that sewing machines have been reduced to less than one half their former rates. It is to his efforts and the company which he founded, and not to the expiration of sewing machine patents, that the grand crash and reduction in them took place, and in benefiting the poor of the land, he has benefitted himself, as his wealth is now estimated at millions.

For the present, and unless forced for the want of room to change, the agency of the New Wilson Sewing Machine will be continued at 149 Front street, Portland, between Morrison and Alder. Under Mr. Garrison's management, this has grown to be one of the established institutions of this city and coast, and people can rely on the fact that when circumstances will guarantee it, the New Wilson will be further reduced in price.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 17, 1879.

WHAT TO DO WITH THE INDIANS

SHALL THEY BE CIVILIZED OR EXTERMINATED? —THE GOVERNMENT PLAN FOR THEIR EDUCATION.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

As the effort now being made by Captain M. C. Wilkinson, to obtain Indian youth to be educated at Forest Grove, has created some comment, will you allow me to state some of the reasons for the new movement? About five years ago a number of Cheyenne and Kiowa Indians were captured and sent as prisoners to St. Augustine, Florida, and were put in charge of Captain R. H. Pratt, U. S. A. They were desperate fellows. One killed himself rather than submit, but under the kind and Christian treatment of Capt. Pratt a wonderful change came over them. Most of them laid aside their savage habits and accepted the principles of civilization. When after three years of imprisonment the orders came for their release, the parting between them and Captain Pratt was affecting, even to tears. Fifteen of the younger ones had so changed that they preferred not to return home at that time, but desired more education. Arrangements were accordingly made so that in April, 1878, they went to the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute in Virginia, where they were to receive an education—intellectual, industrial and moral —the expense to be borne by private contributions. This was looked upon entirely as an experiment. The president, secretary of the interior and other officials, however, became interested in it, and were so well satisfied that an arrangement was made with the same institution to take fifty more of both sexes, mostly from the Sioux, at government expense, and Capt. Pratt was sent to collect them. He did so, returning in November, 1878, and said that he could collect two or three thousand more, if the experiment should prove successful. The winter's work with them was watched with interest, and at the commencement exercises of the institution the secretary of war and of the interior, Rev. Dr. Mark Hopkins, ex president of Williams College; Rev. Dr. Plumer, of Charleston, S. C.; Rev. Dr. Hoge, of Richmond, Va.; Hon. L. S. Foster of Connecticut, and other prominent gentlemen from a distance were present; thus uniting the civil and the military, the statesman and the Christian, the north and the south, and the chief interest of the exercises centered in the Indians. The experiment was believed to be so successful that the Carlisle Barracks in Pennsylvania, which the government has been ready to dispose of, have lately been donated for a similar purpose to receive one hundred and fifty more, and arrangements were made to have a similar school on this coast, in connection with some existing institution, for letters were received last summer at Hampton, from Puget Sound, asking if there were more room there for Indians. Propositions were received by the trustees of the Pacific University last June to have this school at that place. The proposition was accepted, provided that the government would bear all expenses, and the full amount has been granted for which the trustees asked.

On this coast the experiment is indeed new, and in the east has not been long tried, but thus far has been successful. Undoubtedly there are some who will sneer at it, and yet is it not well for us to look at some facts? One of these facts is that the Indians are here. The next is that they must remain as they are, or be exterminated, or be civilized. The former no white person wishes, in fact the march of civilization will not admit of it. So that absorption or extinction is the belief which is becoming very prevalent in regard to them, and many of the Indians have been told by prominent men that they must accept one or the other as inevitable. General Sheridan is, I believe, the author of the saying that "the only good Indian is a dead Indian," and he also has said that every such conversion costs twenty thousand dollars, and half a dozen soldiers. In the Modoc war the cost was much greater. Now, undoubtedly many think they could kill them off much cheaper, and probably could do so with a few; yet after a little such work we would be involved in numerous wars, and it is very doubtful whether in the end, taking into account all the massacres of women and children which would take place, for this would be a game that two could play at, it would not be as expensive as the government method. It would be very much like each individual taking charge of the weather. Many think they could improve it, but if each person should have his own way, we would undoubtedly have weather much worse than it is now. And if each person who wishes to exterminate the Indian should have his own way, we would, I doubt not, have a much worse state of affairs than even if government should undertake the work. But at any rate government will not allow each person to have his own way. This is a fact.

The government method is too expensive; if we wait for them to die off and so become extinct, we and our children will first be dead, for figures show that they are not rapidly decreasing, if at all. Hence it might be well to look for some other way of settling the question; and the only other way seems to be absorption,—civilization. This is slowly being done. To say nothing of eastern Indians, there are this year 29 Indian taxpayers in Mason county, W. T., 33 in Clarke county, 50 in Thurston county, and 165 in the territory, while the number is yearly increasing, and these taxes are paid mainly on land.

Now, if they are thus to become our neighbors, is it not manifestly better for us that they should be educated, intelligent and virtuous, than that they should be ignorant and vicious renegades.

But church, school and labor are the means of elevating them—of elevating anybody. Deprive a white community of these three things, or any one of them, and they will deteriorate. This experiment has been tried too often to leave a doubt of it, and if this is true in regard to the whites, it is fully as true with the Indians, for I do not contend that the latter are naturally superior to the former. The government is attempting to aid the Indians in these respects at Hampton, Carlisle and Forest Grove. The institution at Hampton is literary; it is also Christian, and a majority of the first fifteen Indians who went there are consistent Christians. Yet it was the industrial department that attracted the attention of President Hayes, and it is the published statement of its managers that the Indians there are to receive nothing as charity, either from strangers or friends, which they can honestly earn for themselves. Opportunity is given for them to work, and their friends are requested not send them charitable gifts, except with the consent of the officers of the institution, who feel that the type of manhood and womanhood to which they are looking requires this.

Undoubtedly the number who can be thus educated will be very few in proportion to all the Indians, and if these were to be the only ones thus educated they would be but a drop in the bucket. But they are not. Common schools are in a small way already provided for among the Indians, and more is in contemplation and ought to be done. But some of the whites need the high school and college in order to be successful in certain branches of labor; so Indians need something of the kind in order to be successful teachers of their race. And there will be some advantages in their being at a high school among the whites. They will get ideas of civilization many and large, which they could not obtain at a high school on a reservation. Dr. Marsh, late president of Pacific university, once said to a student of his, a native of this coast, after graduating, "You are an Oregonian now; what you need is to go east for a time and become an American." That student went east years ago, and since returning has constantly felt the benefits of the ideas he has gained. He hardly knew how, and hardly knew he had them until he came to use them. And if the Indian is to be absorbed into the American nation, the needs, for his own good, that of his race and also that of the whites, not only to be an educated Indian, but an American. Seeing Americans and mingling with educated ones in an appropriate way will aid those of them who are to be teachers very materially in becoming Americans, and with them others of their race. Those Indians on Puget Sound, who have visited Portland and San Francisco have come home with new ideas, and incidents are related of those who, on similar visits to the whites, have become so impressed as ever afterwards to remain firm friends of the whites and prevent Indian wars.

SKOKOMISH, W. T. M. E.

WINE AT DINNER.

HOW, WHEN, AND WHAT KIND TO USE.

[Sir Henry Thompson in Nineteenth Century.]

Briefly: The rule by general gastronomic consent, for those who indulge in the luxury of wine, is to offer a glass of light pale sherry or dry Sauterne after soup; a delicate Rhine wine, if required, after fish; a glass of Bordeaux with the joint of mutton; the same or champagne—dry, but with some true vinous character in it and not the tasteless spirit and water just now enjoying evanescent popularity—during the entrees; the best red wine in the cellar, Bordeaux or Burgundy, with the grouse or other roast game; and—but this ought to suffice, even for that exceptional individual who is supposed to be little if at all injured by "moderate potations." With the ice or dessert, a glass of full flavored but matured champagne, or a liqueur, may be served; but at this point dietetic admonitions are out of place, and we have already sacrificed to luxury. The value of a cigarette at this moment is, that with the first whiff of its fragrance the palate ceases to demand either food or wine. After a smoke the power to appreciate good wine is lost, and no judicious host cares to open a fresh bottle from his best bin for the smoker, nor will the former be blamed by any man for a disinclination to do so.

THE NORTHWEST.

Eastern Oregon.

Eggs are 50 cents and butter 40 cents at Pendleton.

"Fourteen miles from my blankets and ain't got a cent," is the way tramps ask for a night's lodging in Eastern Oregon.

The quartz ledges on Dixie creek near Prairie City, Grant county, are still being worked with very flattering prospects.

The country between Wright's point and old Camp Curry, Grant county, is attracting the attention of immigrants and a large influx from California and the eastern states is expected there in the spring.

The O. S. N. Co will soon, says the Mountaineer, employ 200 hands as ship builders, carpenters and laborers. It needs all they can do in building boats to keep up with the amount of grain that will be ready for market next autumn from eastern Oregon and Washington.

Grant county News says: In this county are 16 general stores, 10 blacksmith shops, 14 hotels and inns, 3 shoe shops, 2 barber shops, 2 harness shops, 7 saloons, 3 livery stables, 3 wagon shops, 7 carpenter shops, 7 butcher shops, 2 millinery and fancy goods stores, 4 physicians, 2 drug stores, 2 grist mills, 5 attorneys, 1 tin shop, 2 jewelers and watchmakers, 1 printing office, 1 confectionery store, 2 furniture stores, 3 painters, 12 post-offices.

The Willamette Valley.

The dock at Santiam landing is 6 feet under water.

The hunters of Sublimity will have a hunt on the 23d inst.

The Blue Ribbon Club of Eugene is in a very prosperous condition.

Corvallis people want the railroad finished to that place so as to make Portland a New Year's call.

The amateur hunters of Corvallis had a hunt last Wednesday. Total number of points made, 350. Thirty-four jay birds and one duck.

Southern Oregon.

Says the Coos Bay News: L. Hernocker, J. J. Lamb and a man named Boovenhauser (the last having lately arrived on the Coquille with a view of locating), were going up the river, near Coquille City, in a small boat, keeping close to the shore in order to avoid the heavy current, when a large myrtle tree fell, striking the boat amidship, instantly killing the last named gentleman, the other two saving themselves by promptly jumping into the river, thereby escaping with a few flesh wounds. It was a close call for the whole party.

Western Washington.

Business is brightening at Snohomish City.

Says the Puget Sound Express: Arrangements were concluded last week for the establishment of a cheese factory on White river, many of the farmers in the neighborhood of the works having contracted to furnish milk at an average of about 8 cents a gallon. New industries are springing up in every direction, and the prospects of our city and surrounding country were never more promising.

TUESDAY EVENING, December 16, 1879.

The wheat market has been perceptibly weaker for the past two days, and there have been but few unimportant transactions. The large accumulations of wheat, the scarcity of tonnage, and a decline of two pence per cental in Liverpool have rendered buyers less eager. DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast.

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

KING OF THE BLOOD

THE MOST THOROUGH PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD YET DISCOVERED.

Cures all Humors, from a Common Eruption to the Worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the Stomach.

It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

ITS NAME IS ITS BEST DESCRIPTION, as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health, and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.
